Staff Code of Conduct

Policy application

This policy applies to all staff employed by the school. This code should be read in conjunction with the disciplinary rules contained within the disciplinary and dismissals policy.

Any breach of this code will be regarded as misconduct, leading to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal. Nothing in this code overrides existing statutory or common law obligations.

Statement of intent

Hardwick Primary School expects all of its pupils to receive the highest possible quality of teaching and learning within a positive and respectful environment.

Employees at the school should understand that their own behaviour, and the manner in which they conduct themselves with their colleagues, pupils, parents/carers and other stakeholders, sets an example.

Hardwick Primary School recognises that the majority of staff members act appropriately and treat each other with dignity and respect; however, we consider it important to clarify the expected standards.

This document forms part of a staff member's contract of employment and failure to comply with it, and with the associated school policies, may result in disciplinary action being taken, including legal action where this is warranted.

This document applies to all staff members who are:

- Employed by the school, including the Head of School / Head teacher.
- Employed in units or bases that are attached to the school.

This document does not apply to:

- Peripatetic staff members who are centrally employed by the LA, DDAT or Dioceses.
- Employees of external contractors.

These employees are governed by their employment contracts and any relevant laws pertaining to their activities within the school, for example, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

This code describes minimum expected standards that protect the integrity of both employees and the school; however, having a values-led approach is vital to the school's success. This is a defining attitude towards work, how we work together and engaging everyone to deliver their best. You are expected to demonstrate behaviours that reflect these values whilst performing your duties.

The nature of the work cannot be seen to bring the school into disrepute, nor be at a level which may contravene the working time regulations or affect an individual's work performance.

7.2. Staff will not engage in outside work which could seriously damage the reputation and standing of the school or the employee's own reputation, or the reputation of other members of the school community. In particular, criminal offences that involve violence, possession or use of illegal drugs or sexual misconduct are unacceptable.

10.1. Staff members must not allow personal interests to conflict with the school's business. This means you must not use your school position, facilities or equipment to benefit yourself, family, friends or a private company/interest. Staff are required to declare their interests, both personal and financial, where the group or organisation they are affiliated with would be considered to be in conflict with the ethos of the school.

10.2. For the purpose of this policy, a financial conflict of interest is one where there is, or appears to be, opportunity for personal financial gain, financial gain for close relatives or friends, or where it may be reasonable for a third party to take the view that financial benefits may affect an individual's actions.

10.3. The term 'financial interest' means anything of monetary value, including:

- Payments for services
- Equity interests
- Intellectual property rights
- Hospitality or gifts

10.4. Examples of financial interests that must be declared include, but are not limited to, equity interests in services considered for use by the school.

10.5. Non-financial conflicts of interest can also come into conflict, or be perceived to come into conflict, with an individual's obligations or commitments to the school. These interests may include any benefit or advantage, including but not limited to, direct or indirect enhancement of an individual's career, or gain for immediate family or someone with whom the individual has a close relationship.

10.6. Examples of situations that could give rise to non-financial conflicts of interest include the following:

- Pressure or temptation to accept gifts, inducements or hospitality
- Participating in the appointment, hiring, promotion, supervision or evaluation of a person with whom the individual has a close personal relationship
- Where a member of staff has or develops a close personal relationship with a colleague

10.7. Membership to a trade union or staff representative group does not need to be declared.

10.8. Staff members will also carefully consider whether they need to declare their relationship with any individual where this might cause a conflict with school activities.

10.9. Disclosure must be made as soon as it becomes evident there is or may be a conflict of interest. It may come to light in processes such as recruitment, tendering or during meetings. It must be declared immediately if you, a relative or friend has or could be perceived as having a personal interest in the process. Arrangements should be made to protect both the school and the employee's position.

10.10. You must also declare membership of any organisation not open to the public, which requires allegiance and which has secrecy about rules, membership or conduct.

10.11. Failure to make a relevant declaration of interests is a very serious breach of trust and, therefore, if employees are in doubt about a declaration, they are advised to contact the school or trade union.

10.12. Existing employees must not be involved in recruitment or other management processes involving a friend/relative, or someone they have a close personal relationship with. You must inform the Head of School / Head teacher immediately if you identify an applicant that you have, or could be seen to have a close personal relationship with.

10.13. Where a candidate is appointed that results in being managed by or management of a relative or someone with a close personal relationship, wherever possible, alternative management arrangements will be put in place to ensure compliance with this code.

10.14. Close relationships that develop during the course of employment between employees/Governors must be declared by both parties. Alternative management arrangements will be put in place to ensure compliance with this code.
