Rationale

At Hardwick Primary School, we understand the need to continually deliver high-quality education, including during periods of remote education – whether for an individual pupil or for many. We recognise the importance of maintaining high expectations in all areas of school life. This policy covers all aspects of remote learning in the school including online and distance learning. This includes Home Learning (Homework) and enrichment activities, as well as any interventions that support learners off-site to catch up any missed learning, or to keep up with current learning delivered by the school.

In the event of a school closure, the school is committed to providing continuity of education to its learners and will do so through a process of remote (online) learning. Extensive remote learning would apply particularly in a situation in which the school is closed for an extended period of time, but a high proportion of learners and teachers are healthy, and able to work as normal from home.

This policy does not normally apply in the event of short-term school closures (e.g. as a result of inclement weather) or a short-term learner absence. There is no obligation for the school to provide continuity of education to learners who absent themselves from school, with or without parental permission, in contravention to school or government guidance. This may apply, for example, if parents choose to take learners on holiday during term time. Similarly, this would apply if parents made the decision, without prior agreement with the school, to absent their children from school 'as a precaution', against official guidance, in the event of an outbreak of infectious disease.

Remote learning can be accessed by a child and their siblings if they are absent because they are awaiting test results and their household is required to self-isolate or if a child's class is not permitted to attend school because they, or another member have tested positive for an infectious disease.

Our Aims are:

- To minimise the disruption to pupils' education and delivery of the curriculum.
- To have structured learning opportunities to connect with children across the school week.
- To ensure provision is in place so that all pupils have access to high-quality lesson content and to provide continuity of learning and skills development in the event of a school closure.
- To ensure planning for opportunities for pupil achievement and attainment, including additional enrichment and Home Learning activities.
- To ensure we give opportunities for every child and that all children are safe, respected, respectful and responsible.
- To protect pupils from the risks associated with using an online lesson platform through the internet.
- To respect the rights of children as set out in our Good Behaviour and Anti Bullying policies.
- To ensure staff and pupil data remains secure and is not lost or misused.
- To ensure robust safeguarding measures are in place during live online lessons.
- To ensure all pupils, wherever possible, have the provisions required to take part in live online lessons.

What is 'Remote Learning'?

Remote learning, also referred to as distance learning, gives children who aren't in a physical location due to illness or school closure in-person education, access to online training materials, and the ability to communicate with their school staff from their own home through an Internet based application.

At Hardwick we use two primary applications to facilitate remote learning and communication – Microsoft Teams and Purple Mash.

What is Microsoft TEAMS?

Microsoft Teams is a GDPR compliant digital hub that brings conversations, content, assignments, and apps together in one place, this allows teachers to:

- create learning environments,
- build collaborative classrooms,
- connect in professional learning community and connect with colleagues remotely.

Within Microsoft Teams, staff can converse with children through a class conversation. This is fully visible at all times by all members of the class 'TEAM'. 1-1 discussions (calls and chats) between a class teacher or another child will be disabled from the application to avoid any safeguarding issues. These conversations are also stored on Microsoft's "Cloud" Network within Hardwick Primary School Office 365 tenancy and can be reviewed if and when a need arises. Staff and children can share files and websites, create a OneNote Class Notebook (already built in), and distribute and grade 'assignments'. This allows teachers to organise interactive lessons and provide effective and timely feedback. School administrators and staff can also stay up-to-date and collaborate using Staff Teams. These TEAMS can be used for announcements and topical conversations. Staff can share instructional material using these professional learning communities.

User accounts, licences and security:

For security reasons, children have been disabled from viewing the global directory of users normally available through Microsoft TEAMS, this is to ensure children cannot send emails or obtain addresses of Hardwick Primary School staff; this protects the security of both the member of staff and the child.

Children will not be able to view or comment on any TEAMS other than the TEAM that they have been assigned to. They will also not be able to create their own TEAMS, becoming an owner, and invite members to a TEAM they have created. This is to ensure all TEAMS can be monitored and overseen by the class teacher, the Head teacher, senior leaders, the Data and Network Manager and the Computing and Distance Learning lead as well as our network filtering system.

Microsoft TEAMS uses Microsoft 365 capabilities to authenticate users and provide services. Staff and children have identities established to facilitate collaboration. Passwords are initially set to the child's initials and date of birth, but when appropriate will be changed to Windows Hello and a PIN code.

What is Purple Mash?

Purple Mash enables children to explore and enhance their knowledge in a fun and creative way. The simple to use programs allow students to learn complex Computing skills, such as animations, coding, programming and debugging, music creation, and much more.

Purple Mash contains dozens of powerful open-ended tools and educational games that let our students learn through unique and creative lessons, no matter what the subject. Children can log on at home to access what they have been learning at school to either enhance their knowledge or just have fun.

Children are also able to communicate with their teachers using the 2email account. It is made as simple as possible, with just an inbox and a 'compose' button for new emails. Children can also attach any work that has been completed and send it back to their teacher.

Staff will be expected to pass on feedback to Senior Leadership Team, which will be overseen by Safeguarding/Pastoral team.
